- Added a graphical option (via the graphic settings) to enable the automatic colour correction of the pictures for the characters with circlets.
- Changed to better preserve the graphics settings when savegame files were converted to new versions of the game.

What is new in the Service Pack version 1.6.6:

- Added a new character class: the Malak. The Malak can learn to use both sword and fists, as well as control an Elemental or a Byleth. This Ability opens up a lot of possibilities as a battle fighter, either in towns or in the field.
