The Elden Ring is a fantasy action RPG that launches on August 17th, 2017 for the PlayStation 4. It is being developed by Rice Digital, published by White Paper Games and distributed in North America by NIS America. Rice Digital released Sword Art Online: Lost Song for the PlayStation 4 in November of last year. © SEGA Thanks, Hachiman96Q: How to add views dynamically I want to add one text view as a header for the relative layout in the activity. For this i am taking the text view and putting it outside the relative layout as a background image. and then putting that image as header for relative layout. but it is not working. Image View headerLayout = new Image View(getActivity()); headerLayout.setBackgroundResource(R.drawable.headerpic); RelativeLayout.LayoutParams lp = new RelativeLayout.LayoutParams(RelativeLayout.LayoutParams.WRAP_CONTENT, RelativeLayout.LayoutParams.WRAP_CONTENT); lp.addRule(RelativeLayout.BELOW, header); RelativeLayout.LayoutParams headerParams = new RelativeLayout.LayoutParams(lp); header.setLayoutParams(headerParams); header.setBackgroundDrawable(headerLayout); A: Try this Image View headerLayout = new

ImageView(getActivity()); headerLayout.setBackgroundResource resource(R.drawable.headerpic);
RelativeLayout.LayoutParams headerParams = new RelativeLayout.LayoutParams(
RelativeLayout.LayoutParams.WRAP_CONTENT, RelativeLayout.LayoutParams.WRAP_CONTENT); head erParams.addRule(RelativeLayout.ALIGN_PARENT_TO

You play on a dynamic, yet static world. It's always there, but can be configured in any way.

Persistence lets you handle your worlds like a general, and not like a specialist with his own particular tools.

Completely dynamic to the complexity you feel the world to be, it does not matter which presets you use. The history of your changes to the world can be saved and reloaded later.

“Your nightmare has already become reality. We will have no choice but to remain silent no matter how much we try to resist. There are times when we cannot just walk away from the battle that never ends.” By: GameBusinessClub (Elden Ring Interviews ELDEN RING game: _____

_____ The following is an interview with the ELDEN RING game developer Tomoya Aikou, president of MAGES USA. In the ELDEN RING game, can you fight as an Elden Lord and lead an army to take on an ultimate enemy that will shake the world? Or will you be the reluctant hero that’s been summoned to fight the enemy? Tomoya Aikou ????? Hello. Thank you for taking the time to talk to us. Hello. ????? I’m glad that you asked. I am Tomoya Aikou, the game designer of the ELDEN RING game. Before this title, I joined the staff of the legendary FINAL FANTASY action RPG, which focused on battles and strategy. It was a time when RPGs were synonymous with tactical RPGs, and yet we moved forward, updating, maintaining, and improving the battle and strategy portions. ????? Of course, that sounds great, but how did you create an RPG that features action with a heavy focus on battles and strategy? In my previous work, I had to create a seamless battle system that allowed the player to combat powerful adversaries at his leisure. In the process, the fans sometimes expressed disappointment in the linearity of the battle system. ????? Ah. ????? It was great to hear that it was a point of concern, but in the ELDEN RING game, we wanted to create a game where the player could choose how to play and enjoy it with freedom. In order to achieve this, we envisioned an RPG in which the battle and strategy functions were integrated. In addition, as a core genre of games, we thought of creating a story with an unexpected twist. ????? Oh. ????? In the ELDEN RING game, the story branches depending on the choices the player makes, and the campaign will be a battle story of continuous events. The story is about standing up to the most powerful enemy, bff6bb2d33

Colombia has reported another case of coronavirus. The virus, officially known as COVID-19, can cause flu-like symptoms including fever, cough and shortness of breath and can result in severe illness. Colombian officials confirmed the first case of COVID-19 on March 3. That patient had traveled from Lombardy, in northern Italy. In the capital Bogota, health officials said a second case was reported on Monday, this time involving a woman who had traveled from Iran. That patient was tested on Sunday and confirmed positive a day later. She is in quarantine, and Colombian health officials said the local spread of the virus is limited.
