Screens Title Description 1 Brandon comes home and finds his wife, Lily, is missing. He's sure she just went out for a walk, and everything is fine, but once he gets to her room to check, he finds her body on the bed. He's sure she must have slipped or something, and falls asleep. The next morning, Brandon finds that Lily is still missing, and is sure it's just a misunderstanding. So he goes back to his home to spend the weekend, and when he gets back, Lily is lying in her bed, as she was the day before, and was very much alive. She was having a very bad dream, and her husband arrived as she woke up. Brandon sits with her and listens to her story, and she explains that the person she's been working for, a man named Jan, has been going to her house while she's asleep. He's an old friend and neighbor of theirs, and has asked her to look after some things for him, and she's been doing this for several months now. Jan gave her a sleeping pill, and he's been going to her house, and then at night, taking away the things he wants. She keeps forgetting about the thing Jan has asked her to do, but when she has a bad dream, it's about to start all over again. So the next morning, she finds her husband packing up their things, and they're going to go visit their Aunt Mildred, Brandon's Mom, because she needs help. While they're on the way, Brandon tells her he knows she forgot to do something before she left, but doesn't know what. So Lily explains that she's being asked to look after some things for a friend, and she won't be gone long. She didn't think she'd forget, but she just can't remember what she has to do. When they arrive at their Aunt Mildred's, Brandon checks in to a motel, so he can be close to where she is. Lily goes to check the house, but Brandon knows she isn't supposed to leave the house alone. So he c9d1549cdd

What's new in DEAD OR ALIVE 5 Last Round: Core Fighters Character: Eliot:

Catching up after the week-long holiday...This had been my plan until I was struck by a case of the flu that brought it to a halt. Now I'm trying to catch up... from the bed. I'm taking a few days before I start my Thursday updates, and it's a week since I completed the Canada Post Flock update... Yes, the excitement of Canadian Christmas is now in full swing (that and JOY!) (But I can't show you any Christmas decor, and even if I could I wouldn't really want to ruin the surprise.) So I'll touch on a few things in this week-long "catch-up". Our plans for the next few days are supposed to be Vacation, Vacation, and VACATION. Or Vacation, and Vacation, and a, you know - but, I won't say. Do check back soonish for my updates and what, if any, links they may include. There will be a lot! ----- So... Thanks as always to Royal Mail for being SO incredibly inefficient...the Flock is barely two weeks out, yet we're already expected to collect for it... Aww! Fortunately my parents are helping with the mailing - and being a bit slimmer or the package wouldn't have fitted in the mailbox. I decided on a scribble card. ----- Well, seriously! I didn't think I'd ever see the phrase "Buy Your Copy Now!" on a product. And I never thought I'd see it here! But, Amazon France decided it'd be a good idea to include their own little 'interactive' email campaign in the shop announcement that you can give your order to. And, as a plus, I got the email while on Vacation (Or as we French say "The rest!"): So, while I was unable to see the above ad for myself (Cause I was still on VACATION!) I now know how this fantastic product is promoted. In the link below to the video there is additional information on the product and some tweaks on what you can do if you want. But who doesn't want to be able to buy an untested product with no more than a click? And if I may give this out as a bit of advice, patience is a virtue. ----- The difference between a good

ad and a REALLY GOOD ad is that the REALLY GOOD ads
